Kangol Driving Cap

P/N RW910101 B

As in "Back In The Day" These were the driving caps "gentlemen" wore. Ural logo "bills" the cap. Smart looking casual wear. Ural strip patch shows on backside One size fits all. This was a style made famous by the "Stroker McGurk" cartoons that appeared in American hot rod publications as well as de rigueur (i.e. "fashionable") pit gear at racing events. Washable, reasonably durable, stylish. Color is black.
